PUBLIC LAW - ENERGY - REAL ESTATE - CONSTRUCTION

Lise-Marie Faras has extensive experience in public procurement law and, more generally, in all aspects of the construction and maintenance contract ecosystem.

More specifically, she advises public and private operators on public procurement law, both in terms of award and performance, and in both advisory and litigation matters.

Beyond the strictly public sphere, her expertise extends to the construction and building industry at all stages and for all types of contractual relationships (grouping agreements, subcontracting, maintenance and energy performance, etc.).

She has dual experience as a lawyer and as a company lawyer.
